HE WHIPPED GIRLS

Harry K. Thaw, Exposed by Young Woman's Story.

HIS PALLID FACE FLUSHED

Lodging House Keeper Testifies That He Met 200 Girls at Her Place. He Lashed Some on Their Bare Flesh.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

White Plains, N. Y., July 27.—Harry K. Thaw sat in the Supreme Court here today and heard a woman's testimony that made his pallid face flush. He saw a pearl-handled dog whip exhibited and he heard the witness swear that she had seen him wield it on the bare flesh of young girls. The prisoner's wife, Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, heard most of the testimony, which was of such a nature that Justice Mills preceded its presentation with the warning that "no woman should stay in the court room unless she is willing to hear everything." No girls left the room.

The witness, Miss Susan Merrill, a buxom, pink-cheeked woman of about 35 years, opened a new chapter in the life of Stanford White's slayer. She told of alleged acts of his between 1902 and 1905 when he was a young bachelor in New York before the tragedy on the Madison Square roof garden that resulted in his being placed in the State asylum for the criminal insane, from which he is now trying to escape by proving himself sane.

Her testimony was in marked contrast to that of two alienists who went on the stand and declared that in their opinion Thaw was sane.

Summarized, her testimony was that during the three years named she kept in succession two New York lodging houses where Thaw rented rooms under assumed names and to which he brought at various times more than 200 girls. After Thaw's imprisonment she said she paid these women at least $25,000 as the price of their silence, and to "keep them from bothering Thaw's wife or mother."

The woman told of finding Thaw on several occasions lashing the girls on their bare arms and bodies. Thaw, she said, had posed as a theatrical agent and had lured the girls to his rooms with promises of engagements.

She testified further that Thaw had frequently behaved in a violent manner in her presence and that she considered his acts irrational.

District Attorney Jerome had full charge of the case and it was he who brought out the damaging testimony. Miss Merrill's testimony was stopped when Mr. Jerome intimated that it might injure innocent persons.

Charles Morschauser, counsel for Thaw, succeeded in bringing out the fact that Miss Merrill had been recently arrested on a charge of perjury after an unsuccessful suit to recover $100,000 damages from a man.

The woman denied that she kept any of the money that passed from Thaw through her hands.

"Then why did you stand for all this from Mr. Thaw?" asked Mr. Morschauser.

"Oh, I felt sorry for him," was her answer.

She was instructed to return tomorrow, and Clifford Hartridge with whom she said she had arranged money matters between herself and Thaw,

MADE MRS. SUTTON ACCUSER

Several Officers of Marine Corps Made Party Defendants to the Inquiry. Investigating Lieutenant's Death.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Annapolis, Md., July 27.—The Government today put itself on the defensive and made Mrs. James N. Sutton, of Portland, Ore., a camplainant, and direct accuser of several of the young officers of the Marine Corps in connection with the death of her son, Lieutenant James Sutton, the circumstances of which have been under investigation here for the past 10 days before the naval board of inqury.

The Government's sudden change of attitude came as a surprise when Mrs. Sutton was called as a witness. After the points had been hotly argued by Henry E. Davis, Mrs. Sutton's counsel, and the court had overruled his objection, an adjournment was taken until Lieutenant Harold Utley, a material witness now stationed on the battleship North Carolina, has returned to this country, which probably will be about August 6th.

When Mrs. Sutton was called as a witness by the judge advocate, her own counsel being undesirous of putting her on the stand at this time, she was asked to identify a letter which she wrote to the Secretary of the Navy last February urging a second inquiry to her son's death and in which she expressed her belief that new evidence would be adduced to show that Lieutenant Sutton was killed by one of his brother officers instead of committing suicide as the former board of inquiry decided. As soon as this letter was admitted in evidence, Major Leonard required the court to place Mrs. Sutton on the stand as complainant against Lieutenant Adams, Bevan, Willing and Osterman, and Sergeant DeHart, of the Marine Corps. Mr. Davis insisted that Mrs. Sutton's sole object was to clear her son's name from the stigma of suicide and not to direct the finger of suspicion against any particular person or persons.

The court sustained the judge advocate's position and all the young officers named were brought into court and notified they had been made parties defendant to the inquiry.

Because Lieutenant Utley was also a witness to the shooting and had the right to be present as a defendant, the court was adjourned by Commander John Hood, U. S. N., until Utley should return.

BOSEMAN SHOT BY WOMAN.

Wilson, N. C., July 27.—Dr. F. J. Thorpe, of Rocky Mount came over to Wilson this morning with John T. Boseman, a white man, who in a broil in a house of ill-fame in Rocky Mount last night some time between 10 and 12 o'clock, was shot by one of the women inmates and the small intestine was perforated in 15 places. He was operated on at the Sanitorium and at this writing, 1 o'clock, is in good condition, considering the seriousness of his wounds, but the chances for his recovery are naturally slim.

It seems that last night Boseman, while under the influence of whiskey, with another party, visited the house of the woman, and she and Boseman's companions became involved in a dispute that resulted in the man striking the woman. The man jumped through the door and ran, followed by Boseman, who stopped to unhitch his horse, standing at the gate.

Evidently in the darkness, mistaking Boseman for the one who struck her, the woman fired the pistol once, the ball causing the wound above described.

Boseman is a man of family, having a wife and one child. He is considered a good citizen when not under the influence of liquor. He is 30 years of age and a farmer, the son of Mr. John T. Boseman, a highly respected farmer, residing some six miles from Rocky Mount.

The woman whose name has not been learned, is under arrest. She expressed herself as regretting the injury she caused Boseman. The party causing the trouble escaped.

COTTON GROWERS IN SAVANNAH

Planters of Sea Island Will Store Staple For Better Prices.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Savannah, Ga., July 27.—For the purpose of organizing in the interest of high and stabler prices for sea island cotton, 500 growers of this staple met here today as the Farmer's Union Sea Island Cotton Growers' Association. Before delegates is the question of building a big warehouse here for storing Sea Island cotton in the fight for better prices.

Three States are represented by the delegates, Georgia, South Carolina and Florida.

The convention started off in a muddle because the watches of most of the farmers were an hour slower than Savannah time. A reception committee to escort President W. W. Webb, of Hahira, Ga., to the hall where the convention meetings are to be held, found him in no readiness to go.

Mayor Tiedeman made an address of welcome. President Webb responded. The chief address of the day was by Colonel G. Arthur Gordon, of Savannah. He warned the growers against a wide range in sea island prices.

Tomorrow the real work of the convention will be accomplished.

WRIGHT AEROPLANE

American Aviator Beats The World's Record For Endurance Flight.

HE FLEW FORTY MILES HOUR

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, July 27.—The world's aeroplane record for two men, as to both time and distance, was broken this evening in a beautiful flight of one hour, 12 minutes and 40 seconds—upwards of 50 miles and at a speed averaging 40 miles an hour, by Orville Wright at Fort Myer with Lieut. P. Lahm, of the army signal corps, as passenger.

The former record was made last year by his brother, Wilbur, joint inventor with him of the machine in which achievements were performed at Lemans, France, with Professor Painleve, of the French institute, as passenger. That flight was one hour, nine minutes and 31 seconds. Wilbur was an eager spectator of today's flight by his brother.

"You just scotched your brother's record without really damaging it much," remarked a newspaper man to Orville after the flight.

The cheering which heralded the setting of a new mark in the conquest of the air was led by President Taft in person, who had sat an intensely interested spectator throughout the flight and who insisted at its conclusion upon personally congratulating the brothers upon their success.

This success was all important to the Wrights in that it completed the first of two crucial tests imposed upon them by the United States government—the so-called "endurance test," which required the machine to remain one hour continuously in the air with one passenger. Orville did nearly 13 minutes better than that and could have kept on indefinitely—three hours and a half, the limit imposed by the gasoline capacity of the supply tank.

The other test, that for speed, will be complied with tomorrow, weather permitting, when Orville is to take Lieut. Benjamin Foulois, of the signal corps, on a cross-country flight to Alexandria and return, a total of ten miles, over a measured course, and at a speed required to average 40 miles an hour. Orville could have made that flight this evening, but it was almost dark when he at last alighted after a flight which would have carried him almost twice across the English channel.

Poignancy was added to today's achievement of Orville Wright by the realization by everybody present that upon his last attempt to navigate the air with a passenger, that passenger, Lieut. Selfridge, was killed, and he himself was terribly injured. His devoted sister, Miss Katherine Wright, who nursed him through the period of his recovery from that disaster, anxiously watched him today from the doorway of the shed where the aeroplane is kept, and when he returned unhurt from his flight, gripped him eagerly by the arm, nestled her face against his breast and said: "Bully for you, brother, it was beautiful!"

It is a question whether this word of praise was not more to him than that which came a few minutes later, when the President of the United States, who had waited for him at the other end of the great parade ground, took him warmly by the hand and with the other grasping that of his brother Wilbur, said:

"I congratulate you heartily, sir. It was a great exhibition. You beat the world's record."

"Yes, sir," replied Orville, evidently embarrassed. "I beat my brother's record."

The President and everybody in the crowd about joined in the laughter at this sally.

"How did your passenger conduct himself? Did he talk to the motorman?" asked the President.

"He behaved very well," replied the aviator.

"Well, I congratulate both of you and I thank you for the privilege of witnessing such a flight," added the President, and again shaking hands with the brothers he entered his automobile and rode away amid cheers.

Latham Again Unsuccessful.

Dover, ingland July 27.—Hubert Latham's second attempt to fly across the English Channel ended disastrously today. Almost in the moment or victory his monoplane fluttered down into the sea two miles from the Admiralty Pier, like a bird with a broken wing. Thousands of persons who crowded the water front, saw the fall and for nearly an hour they were kept in suspense, not knowing whether the daring aeronaut had met death or again had been rescued from the water.

A pinnace from the British battleship Russell picked up the unlucky flyer and put him aboard the French torpedo boat destroyer Escopette. After a surgeon had attended to his injuries, the destroyer brought Latham ashore. His face was bandaged and bleeding and his nose broken. The machine was badly wrecked.

FIGHT ON TARIFF

Rate on Lumber Slightly Reduced by Conferees.

HIDES AND OIL ON FREE LIST

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Washington, July 27.—From the best information obtainable, it appears that the House has won its battles for free hides and oil and increased rates on gloves and hosiery, in return for a surrender to the Senate on lumber, coal, iron ore and printpaper. The rates on these schedules, as they have been tentatively arranged pending the acceptance by both houses of the programme for a reduction in the duties on manufactures of leather below the rates fixed by the House, are as follows:

Oil free. Hides free. Coal, 45 cents a ton. Print paper $3.50 a ton. Iron ore 15 cents a ton. Lumber, rough $1.50 a thousand feet; one side finished $2.00, two sides finished $2.25, three sides finished, which may include tongueing, grooving, $2.62 1-2; four sides finished $3.

Gloves, $4 per dozen pairs, not exceeding 14 inches in length, the standard length, exceeding 14 inches, 35 cents per dozen is added for each inch. On the Schmaschen, or cheap glove, however, the Senate rate of $1.25 per dozen pairs is retained.

Hosiery valued at $1 or less per dozen pairs, 70 cents, as against the Senate and existing rate of 50 cents. On values up to $2, the rate is slightly in excess of existing duties and a shading below the rates fixed by the House. On the highest grades the Senate and House rates were identical.

For nearly a week the question of putting hides on the free list or imposing a nominal duty upon them has been before the conference committee. Not even a nominal duty proved acceptable to Representative Payne whose position was strengthened by the support of President Taft and the Senate was compelled to yield in spite of the fact that free hides threatened to provoke an insurrection among "stand pat" Senators from cattle raising States. It appears, however, that Mr. Payne's victory was a costly one, inasmuch as the House conferees were defeated on coal, printpaper, iron ore and lumber.

The chief victory won by the Senate was the retention of its duties on lumber. These represent reductions from Dingley rates but are nearly as low as the House rates, which began with $1 on rough lumber.

Likewise a victory was won by the Senate through the acceptance by the conference committee of a rate of $3.50 a ton on print paper instead of the $2 rate fixed by the House.

The placing of oil upon the free list was a foregone conclusion by reason o fthe strong opposition in both branches of Congress to making this article dutiable.

There seems to be no doubt tonight that the House leaders will be able to put through a rule permitting the conferees to make reductions in the rates on manufactures of leather in addition to the programme arranged in conference yesterday. Some Western Senators, however, still oppose putting hides upon the free list under any circumstances.

Every member of the conference committee tonight said that none of the big questions which engaged the attention of President Taft had been closed. It is known, however, that while the voting has not taken place, agreements have been reached.

The conference report will be ready to present to the House as soon as the rule in regard to the leather schedule is adopted by that body.

For several days it has been reported that the conferees would reduce the rate on lead ore from one and one half cents a pound to one and three-eighths cents, but it is said the two cent rate has been accepted by the conferees.

FAMOUS HOME BURNED.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Brunswick, Ga., July 27.—"The Retreat," a Summer home on St. Simons island, built in 1700 by James Spalding, was burned today. How it caught fire is not known. In the old home's history it has sheltered among other noted persons Aaron Burr and Fanny Kemble. The storm of 1898 rendered the house uninhabitable, and it had not been repaired. After standing over two centuries the hewn live oak timbers in the structure were solid.

M. Bleriot and his wife left London for Paris last night, and he expects to return in October to attempt a flight from London to Manchester for a prize of $50,000 offered by a London paper.

SENSATION IN GEORGIA HOUSE

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Atlanta, Ga., July 27.—The anti-prohibitionists in the State Legislature forgot the truce today, rolled up their sleeves, grabbed their war clubs and sailed into the opposition with such bitter investive that an aged clerk shook his head and remarked: "Nothing like that ever happened in the Legislature in the 40 years I've been attending it."

The fun began when Anderson, of Savannah, who is fighting the near-beer bill, arose to a question of personal privilege. White-faced and trembling he began: "I notice that a local minister named Rev. Len G. Broughton, is quoted in the press as having said in a sermon that it was fighting the near-beer bill because I had bought stock in a Savannah brewery after the prohibition was passed, and that I was the only man in the State who had made money out of prohibition in Georgia. I desire to say that this preacher is a wilful, malicious, wreckless, malignant and vicious liar.

"In the first place no Savannah brewery, nor stock in one has been sold since prohibition went into effect. Hence this is another lie of the reverend hypocrite. About 15 years ago I bought ten shares in a Savannah brewery and paid $100 a share. I was out of the State when the prohibition bill passed and when I returned and tried to sell my stock I could not. It is now worth about $50 or $60 a share but cannot be sold.

"This Alexander bill is a new prohibition bill, and we already have the strongest prohibition bill ever drafted. If it be not enforced then it is because the officers are negligent and the people do not want it enforced."

Anderson sat down in a breathless silence and little Representative J. A. Slade, slight, dignified and ministerial looking, arose. Slade is a Baptist minister. Slade went even further than Anderson in denouncing his fellow clergyman.

"I was astounded and insulted," he said, "to hear the slander heaped upon a worthy member of this Legislature by a man who professes to be a minister of the gospel. I believe in and practice temperance, but do not believe in prohibition. The really honest temperance advocates should realize that unless they curb these freak extremists, they will see the pendulum swing to the other extreme."

Speaker Holden did not let anyone else get the floor, declining to recognize several excitable members.

Dr. Broughton tonight gave out the following statement in regard to the scathing denunciation he received at the hands of Representative Anderson.

"I am glad, at least, if I have done nothing else than force Mr. Anderson to acknowledge in the House of Representatives where he is posing as the champion against legislation for the prevention of the near beer evil, that he is a stockholder in a brewery, one, at least, in Savannah, that is manufacturing more near beer than any other in the State."

SPANISH BEATEN BACK

Moors Consider it Defeat For Spain—2,000 Moors Killed—Rioting.

(By Cable to the Morning Star.)

Oran, Alegria, July 26.—Native advices received here say that the Riff tribes consider the campaign now going on a complete defeat for the Spanish forces, whom they have forced back to Melilla. It is reported that one of the tribes captured one hundred Spaniards, whom they tortured.

Madrid, July 27.—The general staff announces that slight skirmishing occurred at the advance posts outside of Melilla today. The Spanish loss was one man killed and eight wounded.

General Marina has asked that Spanish torpedo boats be sent to patrol the Riff coast to prevent the landing of contraband.

Tribesmen from various points are flocking to Melilla and are preaching a holy war. The presence of warships at Ceuta is imperative to stop the smuggling of arms.

Estimates of the Spanish losses have been raised to 400 killed or wounded. The mountain passes are filled with the bodies of Moors.

It is estimated that the number of Moors killed in recent battles around Melilla is 2,000.

Barcelona, July 27.—Barcelona is now under martial law. Serious rioting has occurred following the declaration of a general strike yesterday in protest against the military operations in Morocco and the dispatch to the country of large bodies of troops. Several persons have been killed and a large number wounded.

There has been much fighting in the streets and practically all communications have been destroyed. Food supplies have been cut off resulting in great hardship and suffering especially among the poor.

The striking cheer the soldiers but have attacked the police of Barcelona and subjects. Many innocent pedestrians have been shot as well as rioters.

Robbers entered the store of James Hilton at Boon's Creek in East Tennessee, Monday night, pulled Hilton from his bed in the store room and beat him unconscious. They then robed the store.

Wilmington	31	28	.525
Fayetteville	24	29	.453
Rocky Mount	22	33	.400

All the games in the Eastern Carolina League were rained out yesterday afternoon except Rocky Mount at Goldsboro and doubleheaders in Wilson and Raleigh will be the order today. In the game at Goldsboro, the tailenders took the conceit out of the topliners by the score of 4 to 2, thereby crawling up in the percentage column to a position with the "Four Hundred."

There will be doubleheaders both at Wilson and Raleigh today and large crowds are expected. Wilmington will make a supreme effort to make it two out of three, if not all three, from Wilson this afternoon and the "bugs" are expected to gather in large numbers at the electric matinee to receive the returns which will begin at 3 o'clock if the patronage is sufficient. Otherwise only the returns from the last game will be taken beginning at 4 o'clock.

The doubleheader at Raleigh with the Highlanders is being extensively advertised and on account of this big event, the Raleigh and Southport will give a special rate of $1.50 from Fayetteville to the Capital City good either on the 5:30 A. M. or the 12:30 P. M. train today, returning on a special leaving Raleigh at 6:30 P. M.

A glance at the percentage column will show that the next few games will witness a tremendous shaking-up of the clubs if the break comes the right way and for that reason the returns for the next few days will be witnessed with rare interest. Goldsboro will be in Wilmington for the last three days of the week and the local management is confident of at least two out of three with the champs.

Doubleheader at Wallace.

Wallace, N. C., July 27.—A large crowd, estimated at between 300 and 400, saw Wallace take both ends of a doubleheader here this afternoon from Magnolia, the first by a score of 8 to 6 in a rather ragged exhibition on account of the condition of the diamond, and the second by the score of 3 to 2, in a fast and well played game. Score:

Wallace	8	11	4
Magnolia	6	9	4

Batteries: Peterson and Hatchel; Faison and Lowder; time 2:10.

Second game:

Wallace	3	3	1
Magnolia	2	6	1

Batteries: Stokes and Hatchell; Bradshaw and Lowder; time 1:20.

The feature of the last game was the pitching of Stokes, while there was nothing especially brilliant about the first game for the reasons stated.

Onto the Umpire.

Goldsboro, N. C., July 27.—Umpire Forbes handed today's game to Rocky Mount by allowing a man a base on balls who, with two strikes and three balls, whiffed clean and hard at the next one, making the third out. He barely escaped a near lynching after the game, and is not wholly clear of danger at this writing. Features, batting of Sharpe and pitching of Otis, who struck out 17 men. Crockett made eleven and Stubbe fifteen out of the possible 27 put-outs. The other one was the one the umpire allowed to walk after clearly fanning. Score:

Rocky Mount ...000 002 101	4	5	1
Goldsboro 101 000 000	2	4	2

TO BOOST LUMBERTON.

Lumberton is one of your coming towns in Eastern North Carolina and it will not be long before it gets in the city class. The citizens of that good town recently got the boosting idea in their heads and started a movement to boom their town. However, the Lumberton Robesonian is impatient and wants the boosting business rushed, thus speaking about it:

"We don't think that committee appointed to report to another meeting about ways and means to organize for boosting the town is going to sleep on the job, but it would be well to strike while the iron is hot. All who attended the former meeting were enthusiastic then about the proposed organization, but if there is too long delay their ardor may cool."

Lumberton is a town whose citizens have made it what it is. Not many years ago it was a sleepy village nestling on the Lumber river, content with a fairly good mercantile business sustained by a healthy country trade. It is surrounded by the finest agricultural lands in North Carolina and is in the State's biggest cotton county. The lands also produce a fine quality of tobacco and as for that matter nearly everything that the ground produces finds a generous soil in Robeson county.

However, Lumberton was in need of something to be done for it. When you pass through there on the train look out the car window on both sides of the town and you will observe that somebody did do something. You will see three prosperous cotton mills and a cursory glimpse of the town as you pass it clearly indicates thrift and makes a good impression upon the onlooker. It was Lumberton's own citizens who did things for their town. Their enterprise and foresight led them into the cotton milling industry and they have made a success of it. The mills stimulated other industries and stirred up activity along all lines and thus we have in Lumberton a prosperous, progressive and ambitious town.

It is all right to organize the booster brigade, but somehow or other the Star feels like calling attention to the fact that some enterprising spirits about Lumberton have done things instead of talking things. Hot air and boasting and boosting are "all to the mustard" and we approve it, but the practical booming of a town is to have faith in it yourself, get the local capital together and establish industries without waiting for outsiders to come in and do what you neglect to do yourself. Lumbertonians exhibited that faith by their works.

It is a plain proposition that if any town or city has advantages, those advantages are as good and the opportunities are as ripe for home capital as they are for the outside investor. It will be found that when the home people make a success the outsiders will be attracted, and we make the bold statement that every town that is going ahead today got its start from the home men with enterprise and nerve.

Lumberton's three successful cotton mills are proof that she has citizens of initiative, organizing and administrative ability, and the town has a start that will place it in the ranks of North Carolina's best towns. The town is surrounded by an ideal agricultural region, and it has three railroads, giving it the advantage of freight facilities over two of the Souths' great trunk lines—the Atlantic Coast Line and the Seaboard Air Line. The town is also on the Lumber river, and with Government improvement of that stream, probably two hundred miles of navigation will be available.

Lumberton is a good town in an unrivaled county inhabited by splendid people, and it is worth being boosted. Let the boosting business proceed whenever the boosters get their plans in shape.

TARIFF DISCRIMINATION.

Those esteemed contemporaries who attempted to draw a concealed weapon on The Star for insisting upon the South's share of any Republican protective measure that Congress might adopt, ought to be able now to see the point which we were making in resenting any inequality of the tariff duties as levied for the benefit of one section to the disadvantage of another. At any rate, the news from Washington is sufficient to open their eyes and convert them into advovates of a square deal for their part of the country. In denying our demand for justice for the South they are now in a poor position to be indignant at the proposition for the tariff conferees to reduce the duties on Southern cotton mill products, and advance those on New England manufacturers which already had the advantage in the schedule adopted before the tariff bill went to the Senate and House conferees.

The telegraphic news from Washington is that the conferees "had decided to reduce rates on lower grades of cotton and maintain rates on higher grades." A special dispatch from Washington on Sunday to the Charlotte Observer says:

"It looks tonight as if duties on coarser cotton good would be cut down. This seems to be along the line of least resistance. The South is vitally interested, and the proposition as it now stands would cripple some of the mills of that section. A loud outcry is coming up from Dixie and Mr. Taft may have to act as umpire and see a square deal. His Southern friends do not believe that he will let discriminating rates be adopted. This, however, remains to be seen. The fight is waging fiercely."

The Southern editor with his eyes open cannot fail to observe that it is in the South where the coarser grades of cotton cloths and yarns are manufactured, while it is in New England where the finer grades are produced and which must be protected to the disadvantage of the South's products. Where is the Southern editor who will not feel some degree of outrage at such an inequal distribution of tariff duties as would seriously cripple the growing cotton mill industry of the South?

The Star is glad to note that the Southern mill men have appealed to President Roosevelt to prevent this injustice and see to it that the South gets "fair, just and reasonable treatment." The Southern petitioners are expecting President Taft to do something for the South that some ill-advised Southern editors would deny it—justice!

North Carolina mill men have sent numerous messages by wire to the President protesting against the proposed unfair treatment of the South, and this makes the Star all the more gratified that from the time the special session of Congress convened it was employing its best endeavors to prevent any inequal distribution of the tariff benefits. We, therefore, endorsed the wisdom and patriotism of the North Carolina Senators and Congressmen in the stand which they took along that line. The news now coming from Washington fully justifies their course and vindicates their wisdom, and the people of North Carolina when they learn all the facts will heartily endorse their foresight and clear comprehension of their duties to North Carolina as her representatives in Congress.

This is said partly in reproach of the newspapers which are now too late to join the movement for a tariff measure that should not be allowed to do injustice to their section but secure a square deal for the entire country without discrimination against any section North or South.

The newspaper interviewers have not succeeded in getting President Taft to state his position on the tariff. The President is a lawyer and ex-judge and is a past-master when it comes to evading a cross-examination by the expert and adroit questioners identified with the press. Like a lawyer, of course, he states plausable reasons for not testifying to all the facts in the case.

Col. N. A. McLean, Lumberton's distinguished lawyer, would have us believe that the Scotchman has no humor, but like Robbie Burns, he goes on, in a communication to the Lumberton Robesonian, to give a living example of the fact that he has a fund of it himself and can't keep it from bubbling over.

Bleriot paid England a flying visit on Sunday. The Frenchman's monoplane carried him safely over the English Channel, and the Englishmen will now have a new reason for believing that a flock of Germans can easily fly over and carry off the Englishmen in their Teutonic claws.

President Eliot, of Harvard University, predicts the advent of a new religion. Those who have plenty of the old religion won't need any of the new one. Moreover, brethren, they won't find much that is new in the new one.

If they turn Harry Thaw out of the asylum we venture the assertion that some men in New York will never meet him if they see him first.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—A good newspaper is an advertisement for the community in which it is published. It works daily to further the interests of that community and "boost it up." Still some of the biggest merchants and firms in the town never carry a line of advertising in the local papers. They leave their papers to depend on outside support. This applies to Newbern as well as to some other towns in this State.—Newbern Sun.

—Pity the sorrows of the poor jailer of London who has got all of those suffragettes under his care. They are more troublesome than so many prima donnas. They won't eat, they won't obey the rules, they won't keep quiet, they won't do anything that anybody wants them to do. It isn't the jailer's fault that they don't get what they want; nevertheless they are making life miserable for him, just as if he were to blame for everything.—Savannah News.

—Men who have long been notorious for their active support of the high protective policy are now demanding lower schedules, some of them even going so far as to say that they will not vote for a tariff bill that does not keep the party promise of revision downward. Self preservation is the first law of statesmen as well as of nature. The light is breaking, and those statesmen who would rather continue to be statesmen than to become mere former statesmen are beginning to realize that they must get into line with the thought of the average man if they are to hold their jobs.—Indianapolis News (Ind.)

—The election next month will be the first opportunity the people of Charleston have had of determining for themselves whether they will have the county dispensary or prohibition. The choice will be their own. If they vote for prohibition the authorities will have a mandate from the people to prohibit absolutely the sale of liquor, and they must exert all their power to that end, or be derelict in their duty. By the same reasoning, if the people vote for the dispensary, the authorities must see that the dispensary law is enforced, or be held again for dereliction of the charge committed to them. Every ballot that is cast will be a citizen's word for the law and for enforcement of the law. The kind of law we have is of great importance, but of more importance still is the enforcement of the law that we have.—Charleston Post.

TOOK OWN LIFE AFTER MURDER

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New Bedford, Mass., July 26.—In a state bordering on insanity, said to have been brought on by drink, and the fact that his wife had refused to live with him, Robert M. Fanning, aged 28 years, came to the police station here from his home in Westport, early this morning and after producing a letter in which he had written of having murdered his wife shot himself in the head, causing instant death.

Following directions given in the letter, Lieutenant Thomas W. Comstock and other officers went to Westpoint about 7 miles from here and at a spot indicated about half mile from her home found the body of Mrs. Fanning, who apparently had been killed with a hatchet.

Fanning arrived at the police station in his automobile. He was in such a condition that it was with difficulty he could make himself understood. He produced a letter from his pocket, and after making several futile attempts to read it himself handed it to Lieutenant Comstock. After the lieutenant read the letter he asked: "What do you want me to do about it?"

"Just this," was the reply, and Fanning with quick motion produced a big revolver, placed the muzzle to his mouth and fired. He fell dead instantly.

Mrs. Fanning had told her husband last night that she would no longer live with him. The couple went for a walk to confer on the matter and Mrs. Fanning did not return.

WEEK AT ROCKY POINT.

Modern Ginnery is Installed—School Teachers—Other News.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Point, N. C., July 24.—Mr. H. N. Messick will install the latest improved "Munger System" ginnery with the Benefield Separator which furnishes the cotton growers of Rocky Point the very best sample that can be turned out from a ginnery. This is an industry that Rocky Point has been badly in need of and the people of this vicinity should show their appreciation of Mr. Messick's interest in their behalf by patronizing the new enterprise.

By this system Mr. Messick can unload by suction direct from the wagon or cart, which will be weighed on platform scales. The bales of cotton will be shot direct from the press to wagon or cart that may be waiting to receive them. Seed cotton and bales will be carried to and from depot to gin for all patrons. There will be several spot buyers of both seed and staple on the market.

At an election of teachers for Rocky Point graded school, Prof. W. P. Cameron, of Carthage, was chosen principal, and Miss Pattie S. Manson, Jorgensen, Va., assistant and music teacher.

Mr. Obadiah Watkins shot a large bear last Sunday that was destroying his hogs. He states that bruin reared up on his haunches and loked like a monster, and gave an unearthly yell when shot and fought his dog most "savageously" and his cry could be heard two miles.

The corn, cotton, and potato crops are looking well. Season fine.

STRIKERS ARE FIRED ON

Rioting Began Again at McKee's Rocks Yesterday—A Settlement.

Pittsburg, July 26.—For the first time in 10 days rioting broke out at the plant of the Pressed Steel Car Company at McKee's Rocks today when the striking employes of that concern were fired upon, it is alleged, by deputy sheriffs. No one was injured.

The authorities have again put on extra sentries and tonight the car plant is surrounded by armed guards for the first time in over a week.

The strike of the employes of the Standard Steel Car Company at Butler was amicably settled today both sides claiming victory.

It is not believed the Pressed Steel Car Company employes will attempt to hold out after the first of the month, when eviction of strikers occupying company houses will take place.

At Front and Princess Streets.

MISTRIAL IN MURPHY CASE

Jury Unable to Agree as to Guilt of Alleged "Blind Tiger"—Two Negroes Get Five Years Each For Larceny—Cases.

Chief interest in Superior Court yesterday centred around the trial of J. H. Murphy in one of the six cases against him for selling whiskey. The case was given to the jury at 11:30 o'clock yesterday morning and after deliberating until 6 o'clock in the afternoon without being able to agree a juror was withdrawn and a mistrial ordered. The jury stood seven for conviction and five for acquittal.

It will be recalled that Murphy, an elderly man, who came here about a year ago from Norfolk, Va., conducted a social club known as the "Royal Grand Bouncers" on Market street, between Front and Second, after the advent of prohibition. About four months ago six warrants were sworn out against him for selling whiskey and he was given a hearing before the Recorder, who found him guilty and sentenced him to six months on the roads. The case came up in Superior Court on an appeal and the defendant was represented by Col. A. M. Waddell and K. C. Sidbury, Esq. D. N. Stanley was the witness against the defendant in the case yesterday. He testified that he got drinks at the defendant's club and left the money on a table. The club was operated under a charter granted to the Royal Grand Bouncers by the Secretary of State for educational, benevolent and social purposes and various and sundry other things. Murphy was secretary and treasurer of this club. Mr. W. N. Harriss, deputy Clerk of the Superior Court, was introduced by the State to show that there was no record of Murphy's connection with the charter. On cross-examination Murphy stated that the charter was purchased from the Royal Grand Bouncers, the original owners, for $30.

In charging the jury Judge Allen said that if it was purely a social club and the members bought and kept their own whiskey for themselves and friends it was not run in violation of the law. But if the defendant let persons have whiskey and they left money for it on a table it was a sale and in violation of the law. He called attention to the fact that the State had introduced the charter to show that the club was a sham—that it was only a place where whiskey was sold. When the jury filed into the court room at 6 o'clock and announced its inability to agree Hon. John D. Bellamy, through the kindness of his heart for the defendant, asked that the bond be reduced saying that he had known the defendant for a year or more and that he knew nothing against him. Judge Allen said that he didn't have any sympathy for the prisoner. He thought that a man of his apparent intelligence should know better. If it had been a poor ignorant negro he would be disposed to be lenient with him. He had an idea that some Norfolk, Va., whiskey men were behind the club conducted by the defendant. He declined to reduce the bond and the prisoner was remanded to jail.

The jurors who had the case in hearing were: R. G. Sellers, Forest Padrick, George Zeigler, W. P. Carroll, E. J. Grimsley, Jr., J. E. Hall, J. P. Carr, G. W. Trask, R. A. Nixon, N. T. Pitman, Moses Horne and Jesse Haskett.

There were many comments among the spectators in court regarding the outcome of the case. In the minds of the majority of those who heard the evidence there was no doubt of the guilt of the defendant. When the jury retired they confidently expected an early return and the verdict to be guilty.

A case against Dandy Johnson, colored, charged with retailing, was continued until the next term of court upon request of Hon. John D. Bellamy, counsel for defendant. Mr. Bellamy stated that the case could not be tried at this term as most of the witnesses were aboard the Revenue Cutter Seminole. The bond was reduced from $400 to $300.

An interesting question was presented to the court late in the afternoon when Hon. John D. Bellamy and Walter P. Gafford, Esq., moved that the case against Thos. James, alias "Lomax," be dismissed on the ground that the warrant upon which he had been tried and sentenced by the Recorder was issued by Chief of Police N. J. Williams, whose term of office as a magistrate had expired. At the time the warrant was sworn out it is stated that Chief Williams did not know that his term had expired. James was sentenced by the Recorder to six months on the county roads. Judge Allen took the matter under advisement until this morning. He seemed to be of the opinion that even if the warrant was not good he could hold the defendant on the affidavit which is attached to the warrant.

Frank Andrews and Holly Grady, both colored, were found guilty of the larceny of a quantity of brass and copper from Mr. T. J. Gore on the 6th of April. It was charged that the negroes cut up the worm of a distillery belonging to Mr. Gore and the damage was estimated at $1,500 or $2,000. The value of the brass and copper as old metal was about $50. It was shown that both of the negroes had been on the county roads, one having served a term of three years which expired only a short time before he was arrested on the last charge. Judge Allen said that it was a hard matter to know what to do with them; that such characters are degrading to the colored race. In this connection he said that he thought the colored people were doing less stealing now than they used to. Whiskey stealing seems to be the most frequent now. The majority of larceny cases tried by him recently were for stealing whiskey. In order that it will not be necessary for the defendants to make as frequent visits to the convict camp as formerly, Judge Allen sentenced them to five years each on the county roads.

William West and Wesley Taylor, both colored, tried before Justice Harriss Monday afternoon on the charge of holding up and robbing William Lumpkins, colored, Saturday night, were tried late in the afternoon and a verdict of guilty was returned by the jury. All three of the negroes came here from Atlanta on the excursion last week and were friends. Lumpkins testified that they held him up at the point of a pistol and robbed him of $85 in money, a watch and his railroad ticket. The defendants claim that they won the money, watch and ticket from Lumpkins in a gambling game, and Judge Allen was inclined to believe their statement of the case. He doubted that Lumpkins had $85 and said that if he did he was a big fool for having that amount on his person. Taking all the circumstances into consideration Judge Allen thought a sentence of six months each was sufficient punishment for them. The watch was turned over to Lumpkins as was also $8 which the defendants said was the amount they won from him. The defendants presented the pistol found on one of them to Jailer J. M. Branch.

The grand jury returned a true bill against Joe Doe, alias "Joe," colored, for attempted criminal assault upon Thelma Mote, the six-year-old daughter of Mr. J. A. Mote, July 1st.

Acting Solicitor Koonce announced just before adjournment of court that he had the docket for today well arranged and the business would go forward rapidly today.

THE THIN AND WEAK.

Easy Way for Them to Get Strong and Fat.

Samose is not an ordinary medicine; it is a flesh forming food that is adapted to the most delicate. Its tonic effect gives strength and health so that after its use for a short time, all the flesh and fat producing elements in the food will be easily assimilated and retained by the body.

The large sale Druggist J. Hicks Bunting has had on Samose since he first introduced it in Wilmington, and the wonderful results following its use, have made him such an enthusiastic believer in its great merits, that he gives his personal guarantee to refund the money if Samose does not make thin people fat and restore strength and health.

When a gain in weight is noticed after Samose has been used for a week or ten days, and health has improved, and you notice yourself growing stronger, you certainly should feel more than satisfied with what you have received from the small cost of 50c.

There may be one or two out of every hundred who begin the use of Samose who are not helped as they expect. In all these cases Druggist J. Hicks Bunting will return the money without any questions.

BULIDING FERTILIZER PLANT

An extensive addition is being built to the plant of the North Carolina Cotton Oil Company, located at Hilton and a short distance from the city limits, which will be used for the manufacture of fertilizer and will be completed by the first of October, about the time the plant is placed in operation after the Summer suspension.

The plant is being constructed by Contractor C. B. West and the entire building including a long shed structure, which will be joined to the main building, will be 116x100 feet in size and the large addition will require 130,000 feet of lumber and 125,000 brick. The brick work is about completed and beginning this morning a large force of carpenters will start to work on the frame. The building will be 44 feet in height and covers the space directly back of the already large plant of the company.

Contractor West hopes to have the building finished by the middle of September, in order to place it in readiness for the Fall season of the company, and good progress is being made.

This large addition will materially increase this branch of the business of the company, which is a side-line to the manufacture of cotton oil. The fertilizer business will doubtless give employment to quite a number of hands this Fall in addition to the present force of several hundred, engaged in the manufacture of the fertilizer and cotton seed oil.

The North Carolina Cotton Oil Company is the State branch of the American Cotton Oil Company, which has hundreds of plants throughout the county. Mr. Henry Bowden is the local manager. At present Contractor West is also constructing a large ginnery at Mullins, S. C., for the company.

BEN BARGE TRIAL THURSDAY

Special Venire of 75 Men Will be Summoned—Counsel for Defendant Insisted Upon Continuance. Stephens Case Over.

Ben Barge, Jr., colored, was arraigned in Superior Court yesterday morning on the charge of murdering John Phifer, colored, in this city, last Fall, and at the afternoon session of court, Thursday was set as the day for the trial. A special venire of 75 was drawn from the jury box and will be summoned today from which to select the twelve men who will decide the fate of the negro.

Wm. J. Bellamy, Esq., counsel for the negro, strenuously resisted trial at this term. He stated that he had not prepared his case for the reason that he did not expect it to be tried at this term. He stated further that while he had been retained as counsel he had not received all of his fee and this was one reason he wanted the case to go over to the September term. Acting Solicitor Koonce announced that the State was ready and anxious for a trial at this term.

At 10:40 o'clock yesterday morning the grand jury returned a true bill for murder against Joseph Stephens, charged with the killing of Ernest R. Shields at corner of Sixth and Campbell streets a few weeks ago. A few minutes before 12 o'clock the prisoner was brought into the court room and arraigned. Stephens had grown a heavy beard since his confinement. He showed no signs whatever of emotion. In the afternoon he was again taken into the court room and was visited by his wife. She spent some time with him. Counsel for Stephens, Hon. John D. Bellamy, and Herbert McClammy, Esq., asked that the case be continued until next term, stating that the crime with which their client was charged was committed only a few weeks ago; that they had merely been retained, no fees having been paid, and that they had not prepared any defense. Mr. Koonce and Joseph W. Little, and Louis Goodman, Esqs., who will assist in the prosecution, made a strong effort to have the case tried at this term. Messrs. Little and Goodman stated that they had prepared their case and that the attorneys on the other side had the same opportunity to get ready for trial. Judge Allen did not announce his decision until just before adjournment of court at 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon when he stated that the case would be continued until the September term of court. He said that he did not feel like going into two murder cases at this term in the absence of the Solicitor.

ORGANIZED BARACA UNION

Enthusiastic Meeting at Grace Church Last Night—Classes.

At an enthusiastic meeting of representatives of the various Baraca classes of the city last night at Grace M. E. church, the six classes of the city were organized into a Baraca Union. This move has been contemplated for some time and much interest has been manifested by the members of the organization who have encouraged the union plan. At the meeting there were some 20 representatives of the Baraca classes present.

Prior to the definite action, Mr. Henry Bowden, assistant secretary of the Y. M. C. A., discussed the plans at length, and the representatives were unanimous in their vote for the joint union. Mr. Newcomb was named temporary chairman, and Mr. A. Freeman temporary secretary, with other officers as follows: Mr. M. E. Graham, of the First Baptist class, president, and Mr. Louis Williams, of Grace class, secretary. Other officers will be elected at a meeting to be held within the next few days.

The Baraca Rally at the Y. M. C. A. next month, on the third Sunday, was also discussed with much interest, and the fact that Mr. Luther M. Tesh, secretary of the World-wide Baraca Union will preside at the meeting, will add interest to the gathering. At the meeting last night it was agreed upon to urge Mr. Tesh to attend.

LIGHTNING WRECKS STEEPLE.

Bolt Struck Colored Methodist Church on Fifth Street Yesterday.

The steeple of the colored Methodist church on Fifth, between Nixon and Swan streets, was struck by lightning yesterday afternoon in the storm shortly before 2 o'clock and was partially wrecked. The bolt struck the steeple on the south side which was ripped off and fell in the church yard.

Following the lightning bolt there was considerable smoke and dust that came from the building, but neither the steeple nor the church caught fire as a result of the lightning. Some time past the same church was burned, and the second destructive accident yesterday makes it particularly unfortunate for the congregation.

PROMISING YOUNG MAN DEAD

Mr. Carl C. Shaw, of Kenansville, Succumbs to an Acute Attack of Appendicitis—Burial Here Today, Probably.

Hundreds of friends and relatives in this city and section were shocked and saddened yesterday when they learned of the death of Mr. Carl C. Shaw, of Kenansville, a promising and most highly esteemed young man, which occurred at the James Walker Memorial Hospital, in this city at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning, of an acute attack of appendicitis.

Mr. Shaw was brought to the hospital Monday afternoon, accompanied by his father, Rev. W. M. Shaw, of Rosindale, who was with him when the end came.

Mr. Shaw was 23 years old and was one of the brightest and most promising young men in this section of the State. He has hundreds of loyal friends throughout North Carolina who will be pained to learn of his untimely death. He graduated from Davidson College with honors two years ago, and was editor in chief for some time of the college magazine. After leaving school he went to Kenansville and for some months later was editor of The Duplin Journal, which, under his guidance, was made one of the best weekly publications in the State. For some time past he had been co-principal of the Grove Academy at Kenansville and was equally as capable a teacher asaneditor. He was active in church affairs, being elder in the Presbyterian Church at Kenansville.

At Davidson College Mr. Shaw won the debator's and essayist's medals and was also president of the society of which he was a member. He was voted the most influential young man in the college.

He recently accepted the principalship of the Clarkton High School and expected to teach there this Fall. In addition to his school duties he expected to revive the Clarkton Express, the first issue of which would have appeared about the middle of August. His death is indeed sad and most untimely.

Mr. Shaw was a son of Rev. and Mrs. W. M. Shaw, of Rosindale, and a grandson of the late Rev. Colin Shaw, one of the best known Presbyterian ministers in the State. Besides these he is survived by three brothers, Professor Herman Shaw, of Fredericksburg, Va.; Messrs. Will and Harry Shaw, and one sister, Miss Ruth Shaw, of Kenansville. They arrived in the city last night and have with all the bereaved ones, the tenderest sympathy of the community.

of the community. The funeral will be conducted at 4 o'clock this afternoon from the Firsst Prebyterian church in this city and the interment will be in Oakdale.

BIG FAYETTEVILLE CROWD

Unusually Large Excursion Brings Some People to City.

The excursion yesterday from Fayetteville was undoubtedly one of the largest of the season, the entire number including white and colored being 700. They arrived yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. A large number of colored people made another record day for the the steamer Wilmington, the majority of the number going from the train to the boat. They were carried to Carolina Beach and were brought back to the city last night, in time to leave at 8:30 o'clock. The many excursionists enjoyed the day in the city and at the beaches.

At the Bijou Today.

The management of the Bijou announces that the bill today will be one of the strongest ever presented at that popular theatre. "Brothers in Arms," a military drama, is a superb creation, and will hold the audience as few motion pictures can do. Its plot deals with two attributes that strike the noblest notes in the human soul—disinterested friendship and gratitude, and there is no situation or climax that is not powerful and above the ordinary. The incidents in the struggle of the opposing armies are developed to the point of commanding and thrilling interest. The management is certain that the many patrons of the theatre will be more than pleased with this picture.

The Rain No Draw Back.

It was all that the force and help at J. M. Solky & Company's could do to wait on the crowds that have taken advantage of this rare opportunity to get real up-to-date clothing and furnishings at a sacrifice. Yesterday was the first day of their sale and their doors opened at 9 A. M. to let the anxious and waiting crowd in the store to grasp the bargains they are offering for the next 10 days. Remember and impress this on your mind that the of J. M. Solky & Company does strictly a one price business and when they put on sale an article it is marked down from its one standard price. There are 313 working days in the year and on each and every one of these days their stock is never sold less than for what it is marked. They have no two prices. Everybody buys his merchandise from them at one and only one price, and that price is the right price or your money refunded to you willingly. This sale J. M. Solky & Company, is now inaugurating is merely to get rid of their enormous surplus stock to make room for Fall shipments. Get in the right store and you will get the right prices. **

Singer Talks

Which is the Best Sewing Machine for You?

¶ All that can be said of the Singer is as nothing compared to the way the Singer speaks for itself. Singer results tell the story of Singer success.

¶ The best way to prove the superiority of the Singer is to try it—try it in your own home—test it by the most difficult work you know.

¶ But you may say "a cheap machine will do all this." Perhaps it will to-day—but how about a year from now?

¶ The Singer lasts a lifetime. The half a century's reputation behind the Singer proves its supremacy—why not let the millions of Singers in the homes all over the world prove which is the best machine for you?

—Newbern Journal: Wood is always cheap here in the Summer, but it is cheaper now than ever before, so cheap that one can buy it ready for fuel for less than it costs to cut it. Slab wood, cut stove length, is selling at a dollar and a little over, according to quality, a cord.

—Lumberton Robesonian: Lumber and brick have been purchased for the new $25,000 church which the congregation of the First Baptist church of Lumberton will build on the corner of Walnut and Seventh streets, and the material is being placed on the grounds.

—Lumberton Robesonian, July 26.—Mr. and Mrs. A. W. McLean left Lumberton last Monday evening for New York, sailed Wednesday on the Campania and will arrive in Liverpool tomorrow, 27th. After touring England and Scotland they will spend a while on the Continent and will return home about the middle of September.

Rocky Mount, July 26.—The Rocky Mount Tobacco Board of Trade met this morning and decided to open the tobacco market for next season on Thursday, August 5th. Single sales will be run through the month of August, and double sales will be put on as usual September 1st, to last throughout the season.

—Kinston, July 26.—Saturday night the store of J. F. Jenkins on Chestnut street in East Kinston was entered and the safe robbed of over $200 in money and goods to an unknown amount were also taken from the store. Mr. Jenkins is sure he locked the safe before closing at about midnight and he is sure that the robbery was perpetrated by someone familiar with the store. He had all of his Saturday's collections in the safe and the blow comes very hard upon him.

—Durham, July 26—Emmet R. Rigsbee, a lineman of the Durham Traction company, was instantly killed here this afternoon while at work on a pole on the corner of Peabody and Queen streets in the southeastern part of the city. He and a number of other linemen were at work removing an old pole and putting in a new one. It was a dangerous job because it was on the main feed wire for the East Durham circuit and there were a number of live wires on the pole.

—Fayetteville Observer: Mr. J. A. Guy has just returned from Stedman, where he went, like many others are doing, to look at the wonderful corn and cotton crops Mr. Jeff D. Sessoms is raising. Mr. Guy says that Mr. Sessoms will average 100 bushels of corn to the acre and two bales of cotton to the acre. He is trying intensive farming and is certainly making a great success of it. The corn is planted in five foot rows, eight inches in the drill and the stalks average four ears apiece. The corn is now ready for pulling. The cotton is planted five feet apart, 2 1-2 feet in the drill and is now waist high.

—Winston-Salem, July 26.—C. B. Watson and W. F. Shaffner went to Asheville today to see Judge Pritchard and petition his Honor to issue a decree granting the Southbound Railroad Company a right of way through the property of the Whitney Power Company now in the hands of receivers. There is a well-founded report current that the Southern Power Company is endeavoring to get control of the Whitney Power plant, but the men who have already expended several million dollars on the property are said to be determined to retain control and when the sale comes off the bidding is expected to be pretty lively.

—Springhope, July 26.—Recorder S. F. Austin, at Nashville, today sentenced Ornie Whitefield, a white man living near Middlesex, to a term of two years on the roads for whipping and abandoning his wife. It was in evidence that Whitefield had not only whipped his wife, plead guilty to the charge and had been fined two dollars in a magistrate's court, but had gone to church with his children, while his wife remained home to plaw. Recorder Austin certainly meant to teach wife remained home to plow. Recor- took an appeal, but is in jail tonight in default of bond. This is the man's third wife and he contended that she did so sorry that he had to chastise her.

—Lumberton Robesonian: The Croatan Indians held a big picnic Saturday at Union chapel, near Buie. Mr. Hamilton McMillan, of Red Springs, was the speaker of the day and speeches were also made by State Senator D. P. Shaw, ex-Sheriff Geo. B. McLeod and County Superintendent of Public Instruction J. R. Poole, of Lumberton; A. S. Locklear, a well known Croatan of this county, and a Croatan by the name of Brewington, from Sampson county. Good music was furnished by a local band composed of Croatan Indians. A large crowd of Croatans and many white people were present, an excellent dinner was served, and the occasion was very much enjoyed.

—Charlotte, July 26.—Telephone message from Cherryville in northern section of the county tonight tells of a serious crime committed late Saturday afternoon two miles from that town in a secluded spot when, it is reported, a white man named Henry Reynolds attacked and criminally assaulted a Miss Dellinger, aged about 20, daughter of W. P. Dellinger, a well-to-do farmer. Information is to the effect that Reynolds came upon the girl as she was enroute to town in a stretch of woodland, and there committed the crime, using force. The girl with clothing badly torn emerged into the road and told her story to a Mr. Hovis, who lived near, and the news spread rapidly through the community. Reynolds was last seen at Crouse, a small town nearby, yesterday. His whereabouts is not known. The police department here were notified today that a reward is offered for his capture. There is much indignation on the part of citizens. Should Reynolds be captured he would doubtless receive rough handling at their hands.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, July 27.—An early decline in cotton was followed by a much more active and stronger market during today's later trading and the close was very steady at a net advance of 21 to 23 points. The market opened steady at a decline of 2 to 5 points and quickly sold some 4 to 7 net lower under liquidation and local bear pressure encouraged by the weakness of the near months in Liverpool, a favorable opinion of the weather may and bearish continental trade reports. But there seemed to be good buying at the decline and later the market steadied, developing no little strength and activity during the afternoon when December contracts sold up to 12.25 or about 32 points above the low level of the morning. The high point in the trading in the general list was a net advance of 2 to 4 to 26 points and closed within 2 or 3 points of the top. It seemed as though some of the stronger interests were supporting the market during the afternoon while recent sellers were sovering on talk of a very bullish August bureau report next Monday, which was expected to be preceded by a number of bullish private reports. A canvass of 55 members of the local exchange showed that a government report of 73.8 per cent is looked for on the average, which would be a slight deterioration from last month and compare with 83 per cent. last year, and the previous low August record of 74.9 per cent. in 1905. There were rumors that a private report to be issued within the next two or three days would make the condition 71 per cent.; but there seemed to be no tangible basis for the figures. Southern spot markets officially reported early were generally unchanged. The report of a prominent local authority indicating no improvement in corp prospects during the past month in Georgia and Alabama probably encouraged the talk of a bullish bureau report.

Receipts at the ports today 3,139 bales against 2,579 last week and 6,560 last year. For the week 20,000 bales against 18,877 last week and 28.579 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans were 444 bales against 1,184 last year and at Houston 15 bales against 14 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet 20 points higher, middling uplands 12.65; middling gulf 12.90; no sales.

THE DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, July 27.—The jobbers are doing little better every day. Staple prints are moving at the new prices. Yarns are soft and trade in them is light. The export markets are quiet, miscellaneous trading in small lots being the rule. Men's wear is active.

MARKET GOSSIP.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, July 27.—The stock market was characterized still by its narrowness and professionalism and its movements had little significance as an index of financial views on conditions. The time set for the meeting of United States Steel directors was 3 o'clock, which left the market confronted with the certainty that it would know nothing of the action taken on the dividend in time for trading before tomorrow. This position of apparent doubt inspired little speculative activity such as is often induced by a confused prospect even more than by a certainty. The small impression made on the price of United States Steel by the broad intimations of the past few days that no dividend increase was to be counted upon made the shorts in the stock unwilling to wait for the action of the directors.

Trade advices continued highly satisfactory among the steel industries and those industrials were strong as a group. Speculative opinion in Wall street has not, at any time relinquished the conviction that conditions warrant the expectation of a crop yield this year of unpreeedented value.

Bonds were steady. Total sales $4,284,000. oTtal sales stocks today were 411,400 shares.

—Warsaw, July 26.—Charges of specific misconduct having been filed against Jas. B. Winders, postmaster at this town, whose nomination was held up by Senators Simmons and Overman when it came up in the Senate on June 28th. One of the charges made against Winders is contained in the court record of an action against Winders by one R. L. Tucker, also a citizen of Warsaw. It was charged by the plaintiff Tucker that Winders swore out a warrant before a justice of the peace against one Eli Kennedy for stealing a hog, that the justice handed the warrant to Winders for delivery to the sheriff, and that while the warrant was in the custody of Winders he inserted the name of R. L. Tucker, who was promptly arrested on it. Tucker brought suit against Winders for damages and the jury found that Winders did unlawfully and wrongfully insert the name of Tucker in the warrant and gave Tucker damages in the sum of $325, which Winders had to pay. The case is reported in the 130th N. C., at page 147, and the Court says in the opinion: "The plaintiff's name was added in the warrant in the original case as one of the defendants by this defendant himself who cursed the plaintiff and caused him to be arrested." It is stated that Winders has appeared in a multitude of court proceedings and, whether as plaintiff or defendant, he has almost uniformly been unsuccessful.

CONSPIRED TO DEFRAUD BANK.

Is Charge Against Messrs. Breese and Dickerson at Asheville.

Asheville, N. C., July 27.—Making the charge which was brought in the five previous trials of Messrs. Breese and Dickerson for conspiracy to defraud the First National Bank of this city, that the accused had issued bogus notes to the extent of $257,000 while officers of the bank, District Attorney Holten opened the case for the government this morning. Colonel W. G. Burgyn, former national bank examiner, who took charge of the bank when it failed in 1897, testified relative to the condition of the bank before it failed and his subsequent examination of the books. He was still on the stand when court adjourned until tomorrow.

Alcohol is a Preservative.

Alcohol is recognized the world over as the proper, most efficient and wholesome preserver of medicinal compounds, and while some journalists try to alarm the world by the cry that patent "medicines contain more alcohol than beer," they neglect to state that proprietary medicines are taken in doses from a teaspoonful to a tablespoonful, while beer is a beverage that is consumed in quantities from a glass to several quarts a day.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound contains only 18 per cent. alcohol, simply enough to preserve the roots and herbs from which it is made, and may be relied upon by every woman in the land as a reliable, honest and sure remedy for the ills peculiar to her sex.

Aside from the Merrill woman's testimony the alienists took up the remainder of the proceedings and proceeded in Thaw's behalf.

Dr. Brittan D. Evans, who made a report two years ago declaring Thaw insane, said he had reversed this opinion.

MURDERED IN COURT ROOM.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Little Rock, July 27.—Shooting over the head of U. S. Senator Jeff. Davis, W. Y. Ellis, a resident of Pine Bluff, fired a bullet into the heart of Nathaniel Parker Willis, owner of a liquor cure at Indianapolis, in the Circuit Court room here late this afternoon.

The shooting was the tragic ending of a law suit brought by Willis against his divorced wife, who had subsequently married Ellis, for the possession of his child. Willis died almost instantly after he was shot, in the arms of his mother, who was waiting across the room and rushed towards him as he fell in the hallway outside the court room.

Yesterday Willis secured an order from Circuit Judge Fulk to take possession of the child and today the parties to the suit met in the court room to decide where the child was to be delivered. Ellis appeared for his wife, the former Mrs. Willis, and Senator Davis represented Willis.

While Judge Fulk was seated at a table in the court room discussing with Senator Davis the conditions of the transfer of the child, Ellis pulled a revolver from his pocket and fired point blank at Willis, seated across the table. A court attache knocked up his arm just as the weapon was discharged and the bullet was embedded in the wall.

Willis ran around the table with Ellis close at his heels. Just as Willis ran out of the door Ellis fired a second time. Willis fell to the floor dying, clasped in his mother's arms.

Sheriff Roberts seized Ellis, pulling him into an ante room to prevent further shooting. He surrendered his pistol to Judge Fulk and was at once taken to jail.

The floor of a lecture hall at Allessandria, Italy, collapsed Monday, carrying down with it several hundred persons. Scores were hurt in the struggle to escape, thirty seriously. Six of the latter cannot recover.

Dr. James B. Cowan, aged 77 years, dropped dead of heart disease at Tullahoma, Tenn., Monday. He was the last surviving member of General N. B. Forrest's staff and was a noted surgeon.
